Public Communication

Raul Murrieta addressed the board with concerns regarding discussion regarding: MHS Principal, Contracts, The SIG Plan, & QEIA and the criteria required. He asked for better involvement from staff as well as from the community. He asked that input be obtained from different groups.

Terry Flanagan from CSEA also addressed the board regarding classified layoffs. He stated that he was asked by Chapter #186 to come to speak before the board to express the frustrations of the classified employees.

Kathy Rowland addressed the board regarding the MHS Principal position. She feels that Lori Schultz has done an excellent job. She added that regarding the SIG process Lori knows what needs to be done and is a leader. Mrs. Rowland added that she feels that Lori is the best choice for their site.

Mayela Medina commented regarding the MHS Registrar and the plans of moving her to another place. She asked that before anything is done someone speaks to the Counselors the importance of having the Registrar at the high school. The registrar doesn't just do transcripts she does many other confidential things and she feels it not a good idea to move her.
